BROWARD SHERIFF'S OFFICE CITIZEN OBSERVER PATROL IS RECRUITING VOLUNTEERS TO PATROL CITY PARKS!!

The BSO Citizen Observer Patrol (COP) is a group of volunteers who use a simple approach to safeguard our neighborhoods through citizen involvement. COP volunteers are local residents who help to reduce potential crime by patrolling their communities, looking out for suspicious occurrences or potential hazards and by offering assistance to others in COP volunteers wear uniforms and drive specially marked cars, adding to the crime-fighting presence in the community. This vigilant, community-oriented group of volunteers acts as additional eyes and ears for law enforcement, providing a highly effective deterrent against crime.

If you are interested and would like to be part of this program at the City of Tamarac, please call 954-597-3642. We need 10 people to sign up for the class.
